"Beginning on the Violet Brick Road..."

"Beginning on the Violet Brick Road..."

What can I do to bring my colleagues together with friendship and fun? How can we support each other as educators, the greatest profession in the world? These were questions that led me to the Internet...not looking to reinvent the wheel, but looking for an organization that held these common purposes and goals in high regard. An organization that would elevate our professional and personal development...and that is what I found in Kappa Kappa Iota.

Letters, emails, and phone calls...oh my! Connecting with a few colleagues, I secured the "Yes, I'll do it!" from each of them. However, it wasn't enough to begin the chartering process, so we did a second sweep at our school. We connected with the needed number to charter, and we began sending letters and email contacts to our state officers. The positive encouragement and support was overwhelming! Everyone in the Upsilon State Chapter was willing to help and provide information to keep us on the "violet brick road." So, as "Le Cercle Violet" ("The Violet Circle", the name we chose for our local chapter), we continued to plan, prepare, and develop our chapter's image and direction.

On October 22, 2012, we were visited by National President Christena Poole, National President-Elect Sue Hagan, and Upsilon State President Ann Burnette. These three wonderful ladies conducted our member initiation and chapter installation. There were many high points and some low points during our chartering year, but they were necessary to help us grow as professionals and as a chapter. As Chartering President (and the current Chapter President), I am so delighted we have become a chapter, and I look forward to many years of "Great Work" in the Sigma Chapter of Kappa Kappa Iota. There's no place like home!

Yours in Kappa,
Joseph Cunningham, M.A. Ed.
President, Sigma Chapter, Upsilon State/SC

Soar with Kappa! by Sue Hagan, National President, Upsilon State/SC

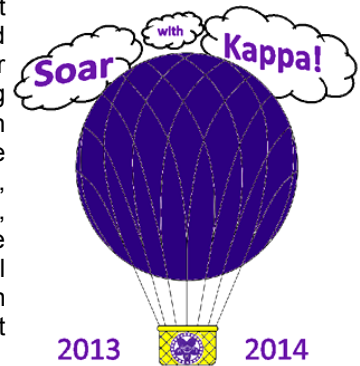

OMAHA – what can I say - beautiful city, friendly people, and lots of fun places to visit. What a wonderful convention we had. I am sure that all that attended had a great time. The start of the convention was the last night of the College Baseball World Series, and mingling with many of the fans was fun! Convention Chair Nancy Johnson and the Kappas from Nebraska and Iowa worked hard to put on a truly memorable convention. The business meetings were productive, the guest speakers were entertaining, and the Kappa saxophone trio at the Memorial Service demonstrated another of the many talents of Kappa members. The food was great, and the hotel service was spectacular.

My installation was a demonstration of the commitment of my state and local chapter. Ann Burnette and Julie Rogers did a great job on the installation service. My local chapter had six members present that included: Ann Burnette and her husband Rick, Julie Rogers and her husband Robin, Linda Harrelson and her husband Sammy, Patty Fleming, Andrea West, Judy Medlin, and, last but not least, "Pete" Johnston. As I told the attendees, Ms. Pete has been my inspiration and greatest cheerleader since I began this journey through the ranks of the National Kappa Organization. All chapters need a

Ms. Pete if they want to "Soar with Kappa". My family showed up in full force with my mother Frances Hagan (who turns 90 in September), my two sisters - Sarah and Jeanie, my brother Pat and his wife Shannon, and four of my nieces - Katie, Jordan, Allie, and Amanda who all joined me for the installation. It was a great opportunity to introduce Kappas to my family and my family to the national Kappas. The letters sent by my supporters from home were very special.

My theme for the coming year is "Soar with Kappa!", and my logo is a hot air balloon. As the oldest organization for educators in the United States, we are a true family who worries about each other, grieves with each other, and celebrates the accomplishments of each other. As a family, we need to seek out new members and welcome them into the fold. Currently, we have members in 23 states that impact the education of thousands of students. I am challenging you this year to help Kappa soar with new members and restored optimism for educators. There are thousands of teachers looking for a support group, and, as far as I am concerned, Kappa is the perfect organization for this challenge. Seek out new members, and welcome them into your "family". I am looking forward to my visits with my contact states. I have invitations from Florida, Texas, Georgia, Arkansas, North Carolina, and the chapter in Maryland. I will also be in Tulsa in October and March - what fun! I do love to travel!

KAPPAS IN THE NEWS

Bidding Her Friends Farewell

Naomi Vaught, a charter member of Nu Chapter in Xi State/FL and now a member of Sigma Chapter, recently donated her stuffed animal collection to Kappa Kappa Iota for the children of the Omaha Foster Care sponsored by the Children's Square of U.S.A. Her donation was presented at the National Convention. Naomi started her teaching career at Palmetto Elementary and also was a Home Economics teacher for a time at Manatee High School.

Xi State St. Lucie Chapters Contribute to School Openings

Alpha Beta Chapter, Xi State/FL collected shoes for children in the community.

Zeta Chapter, Xi State/FL purchased school supplies and created 30 baskets of these supplies to give to first year teachers in the district.

Job Well Done

Denise Wright, Kappa Chapter, Beta State/NM was given special recognition by Alamogordo Public Schools, receiving a pin recognizing her many years of service.

Rho State, North Carolina Celebrates 50 Years

Rho State/NC was chartered in May 1963 and celebrated 50 years of friendship and memories with a grand birthday party in Asheville, North Carolina during the State Convention, hosted by Rho Local Chapter. Pictured at the right are the Past State Presidents to present day that attended, including Past National President Frances Barrier (front row, third from the right). What a special day it was!

Oklahoma State University Campus Kappas

The OSU Campus Kappa Chapter, Alpha State/OK were honored to have Oklahoma Superintendent of Education speak at their recent meeting. A few educators from Tulsa also attended.
